Vandiver was not at his best, being a little out of health, his speech was an able one, filled with sound argument, and was highly complimented by those who heard him. Mr. Vandiver went from here to St. Louis where he is billed for several speeches. He is sanguine of his election, and hopes to increase his majority.

Two democrats of Cape county nominated for Representative, R. H. Whitlaw; collector, Joseph E. Schumke; sheriff, Fredrick Schade; judge common pleas court, Robert G. Ranney; surveyor, N. C. Frisell; treasurer, Francis M. Baker; assessor, Albert H. Poe; prosecuting attorney, T. D. Hines; public administrator, Jacob Doyle; coroner, Dr. Robert E. Wichterich, county judge, first district, Joseph Fuerth.

WHAT SAM B. COOK has to say to Colonel Dalton in the Mexico Intelligencer, is a plenty. The only trouble with Colonel Dalton lies in the fact, that his "Farmer Dick" racket was a flat failure, and a majority of the democrats of Missouri, can now congratulate themselves over the fact. But we are told that he still has great solicitude for the farmers of Missouri. We presume the republican farmers, who need him very much now, but it is very doubtful if his future will ever give them any anxiety.

TEXAS was swept by a furious hurricane last Sunday, destroying millions of dollars worth of property and latest reports say 3,000 lives. The city of Galveston was engulfed by a tidal wave and the entire city submerged destroying 4,000 houses. A large portion of Houston was wrecked and more or less damage done to many other cities and towns of which but meager reports have been obtainable owing to the condition of the wires.

ORION, BATAAN PROVINCE, P. I. July 22, 1900.

As I have just arrived at camp from a long, dreadful hike in the mountains, chasing Guegues for three long days and nights, and after taking a short nap, thought I would write you a few lines to pass off the time.

We are camped at Orion, island of Luzon. This province just west of Manila bay and bordered on the west by China sea, and has an area of 1023 square miles, with a population of 52,000; 12 towns and 15 barrios. There are also some tribes of uncivilized Negritos. The province has a civil government of the second class.

Balanga, the capital, is a pretty place, with broad, straight streets and a beautiful plaza. There are a number of good buildings, including a splendid church, provided with an excellent tower clock, and has a population of 8,919. The other towns of importance are, Orion with a population of 7,885. Abacan 7,089, and Orant 6,146. The products are the staples of Southern Luzon, and although excellent in quality are small in quantity. Tagalo and Pampango are the languages.

The inhabitants are made up of several different tribes.

As this is a warm climate and has a rainy season, the boys in blue have very bad health.

The Guegues still hang to their guns and ammunition and give us all the trouble they can. Our boys have to be very vigilant to keep them from sneaking up on us. I think insurrection is about over for we have the largest bands almost broken up, but there are still a large number of small bands of Ladrones and it will take some time to civilize these ignorant people. With sincere regards to my friends and with best wishes for yourself.

Your friend,
George Smith.

Henderson was on the wagon and Mr. Miller and Lee Caldwell were forking hay up to him. The current struck Mr. Henderson on the head and passed out at his foot. His hat and shoe were torn by the lightning. Miller and Caldwell were badly shocked and the team knocked down. The death of Mr. Henderson, however, was the only serious damage that was done. He was about 30 years of age and unmarried.

The Lane that Had No Turning.

Since adventuring into Egyptian quest of the raw material of which fiction is made, Mr. Gilbert Parker's Canadian fields have been lying fallow. He returns to them, however, with new vigor, and even fuller power; and the serial which he has just completed finds him at the highest dramatic level to which he has yet attained.

The Lane that Had No Turning is remarkable for its honest strength, thorough originality, and absorbing interest. The scene of the story is Pontine (whither Vainoc came), and the period the middle fifteenth. The leading characters are Madeirota, a famous singer, and her husband, Seigneur of
